MEVLANA EXCHANGE PROGRAM

Mevlana Exchange Program is a Higher Education Institution (YÖK) Program that provides opportunity to exchange of student and academic member between higher education institutions that give education inland and abroad. Differently from other exchange programs, mobility which situated within the scope of exchange program includes all higher educations in the World without discriminating any geographical region. Provisionally, Erasmus countries are out of the program. Our academic members who would like to participate the exchange program (planning to be implemented in 2014-2015 academic years) and give lesson are requested to submit the universities with which they would like to sign a protocol and communicate to this e-mail address: mevlana@gyte.edu.tr
